

GREENLEAF[®] TRUST

CONTACT:

Marketing

Greenleaf Trust

269.388.9800

marketing@greenleaftrust.com

Greenleaf Trust welcomes new trust relationship officer, Regina Jaeger

Traverse City, MI, July 1, 2017 – Wealth management firm, Greenleaf Trust, announced today the hiring of Regina Jaeger, who is joining the firm’s Northern Michigan team. As Vice President and Trust Relationship Officer, Regina will be responsible for providing trust services to individuals and nonprofit organizations. She has over 29 years of experience in providing trust administration, estate settlement, investment management services, foundation and banking solutions for trust and wealth management clients.

“We’re delighted that Regina Jaeger is joining our trust and wealth management team,” said John Welch, Senior Vice President and Managing Director of Greenleaf Trust Northern Michigan. “Her reputation for providing the highest levels of client-focused service is well known and widely admired throughout our area. Her core values of integrity, fiduciary excellence, continuous improvement, and always putting the needs of the client first perfectly align with our own.”

Regina graduated with honors from Davenport University and is also a graduate of Cannon Trust School. She is a Certified Trust and Financial Advisor.

About Greenleaf Trust

With offices in Kalamazoo, Grand Rapids, Birmingham, Traverse City and Petoskey, Greenleaf Trust is an independent Michigan-chartered trust-only bank, exclusively focused on wealth management, trust and estate administration, and administration of company-sponsored retirement plans. Through our unique, client centric team approach, we provide highly personal and customized client service, with no conflicts of interest, to ensure our clients’ financial security from generation to generation.

##